

Mary Holmes

is married to the potter, Michael Mahan and has been living in Seagrove since moving to From The Ground Up Pottery in 2002.

She has had a life-long interest and love of pottery which started while growing up in Ireland.

She is fully involved in the day to day life of the pottery at From The Ground Up.

In 2008, Mary joined the committee who started the Celebration of Seagrove Potters and is now the Chair. She is also on the Board of the Seagrove Area Potters Association.

“My inspiration for comes from the beautiful natural surroundings here at our pottery and home”.
